JOAQUIN MILLER'S LAST. Alone and sad I sat me down
To rest on Rousseau's parrow isle,
Below Geneva. Mile on mile,
And set with many a shining town,
Tow'rd Dent du Midi danced the wave
Beneath the moon. Winds went and came,
And fanned the stars into a flame.
I beard the far lake, dark and deep,
Rise up and talk as in its sleep.
Integrated the laughing waters lave
And lap against the farther shore,
An idle oar, and nothing more

An idle oar, and nothing more
Save that the Isle had voice, and save
That round about its base of stone
There plashed and flashed the foamy Rhone, A stately man, as black as tan,
Kept up a stern and broken round
Among the strangers on the ground.
I named that awful African
A second Hannibal. I gat
My elbows on the table, sat
With chin in upturned palm to scan
His face, and contemplate the scene.
The meon rode by a crowned queen.
I was alone. Lo! not a man
To speak my mother tongue. Ah me!
How more than all alone can be
A man in crowds! Across the Isle
My Hannibal strode on. The while
Diminished Rousseau sat his throne!
Of books, unnoticed and unknown.

Came by, and on the storied spot I lifted up a tearful face. The star-set Alps they sang a tune Unheard by any soul but mine. Mont Blanc, as lone and as divine The past was mine, strong-voiced and vast Stern Calvin, strange Voltaire, and Tell, And two whose names are known too well

To name, in grand procession passed. And yet again came Hannibal. King-like he came, and drawing near, I saw his brow was now severe And resolute. In tongues unknown Again he spake. I was alone, Was all unarmed, was worn and sad;
But now, at last, my spirit had
Its old assertion: I arose,
As startled from a dull repose.
With gathered strength, I raised a hand,
And cried, "I do not understand."

His black face brightened as I spake; Howed; he wagged his woolly head He showed his shining teeth and said, 'Sar, if you please, dose tables here, Are consecrate to lager beer; And, sar, what will you have to take?' Not that I loved that colored cuss-Not that I loved that colored cuss—
Nay! he had awed me all too much—
But I sprang forth, and with a clutch
I grasped his hand, and holding thus,
Cried, "Bring my country's drink for two!"
For oh! that speech of Saxon sound
To me was as a fountain found

ANALOGIES.

BY EDGAR FAWCETT. I lounge against my garden-gate; On one side heaven the sen hangs low; Down one side crawls the exhausted storr That flashed and crashed and hour ago.
I lounge and see, with musing eye,
Two roses and a butterfly.

One is a imptuous languid rose.
That bows its heavy, lovely head,
While each fresh petal's velvet curve
Burns with the same deep drowsy red;
Circe her subtle self (who knows?) Plotting new sorceries in a rose! One is a pale pure bloom, with leaves

Like satin in their lustres mild, Half-closed, and faintlier flushed than looks The chaste palm of a little child; Or pink as some late sunsets are, That yearn to feel the evening star!

The butterfly's quick-quivering wings
Wear each the blendings of such hues;
As lurk in some old tapestry's
Dim turmoil of golds, crimsons, blues;
Wings where dull smoldering color lies, Lit richly with two peacock eyes! He can not leave the great red rose; He flutters near it, loath to part From all the fragrant charm which girds That blood-drop warm from summer's hea

CHILLS AND FEVER

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy, and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country to hear him testimony to the truth of the assertion, that in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single lose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bettle, with a perfect restoration of the week or two after the disease has been cine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses o the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEG-

rom Mrs. Rivers, wife of Reverend Dr and popular Ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at who is at present stationed at Broadwa Church, Louisville,

Dr John Bull - Dear Sir : Many thanks you for the medicine you have so kindor years, and had the advise of various physicians. Some pronounced my spine, some my lungs, and some my heart to be he seat of my disease. I have been burnt, blistered and cupped until I had become day. I had suffered terribly with a most acute pain in the right side of my head, especially when I would read or write feb21-6m. for any length of time, and on rising to my feet I would be perfectly blind for several minutes, and would have to hold to something to prevent falling. I am most happy to inform you that pain in my head is entirely relieved; I suffer but seldom with my spine and then not so acutely. My appetite is good; indeed for the first time in my life I enjoy my dinner more than any meal during the day.

You kindly sent me four bottles again last night, and I began again this morning, and I hope to be entirely relieved. Please accept my heartfelt thanks and best wishes. Very truly your most grateful friend, Do not suffer yourself to be imposed on.

> DR. JOHN BULL-Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case I was wounded about two years agowas taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not sat up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles and oblige CAPT. C. P. JOHNSON.

P. S.—The following was written April 30th, 1866, by Mrs. Innie Johnson, mother of Capt. Johnson. Dr. John Bull-Dear Sir: My busband, Dr. C. S. Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. scrofula, for which I gave your Sarsaparilla. It cured him. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores, and general debility. Perfect success has cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JENNIE JOHNSON.

VILLANOW, WALKER COUNTY, Ga.,) Dr. John Bull-Dear Sir: I have recently given your Worm Destroyer several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacions. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am, sir, respectfully, JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

P. S.—So unqualified and numerous are the estimonials in avor of my Worm De-stroyer that news; per space is entirely too small to tell its herits. It is an infallible remedy for Worms. Try it and be convinced. See my journal for a more full description. JOHN BULL. P. S .- Mr. Johnson was the son of a skillful surgeon. His mother recommended to ber friends, and for many years used my Sarsaparilla with perfect success. In Scrofula and Fever-sores Mrs. Johnson states that the cures effected were almost miraculous. Read my Journal for extended information and advice in your case. My Journal contains certificates of eminent persons, ministers and medical men-men who are known here in this community for integrity and veracity.
